Brexit: Existing Third Country Regimes

Brexit: Existing Third Country Regimes and applicable EU/UK equivalence decisions or relief under the UK Temporary Transitional Powers

January 2021

The table below summarises existing third country provisions within EU financial services legislation and outlines whether the European Commission has taken an equivalence decision for each provision in relation to both the UK and other third countries. We also highlight whether relief is available under the UK regulators' temporary transitional powers (TTP) or because of a UK equivalence decision.

| Market infrastru | cture access | | | | |
| Article 38(3) – MiFIR | Access rights for third-country CCPs and MTFs/OTFs. A trading venue established in an equivalent third country may request access to an EU CCP and a recognised CCP established in an equivalent third country may request access to a trading venue in the EU. Requires CCP recognition as well as jurisdiction-level equivalence. | Νο | No. The European Commission has indicated that it will not make a corresponding equivalence assessment in respect of the UK in the short to medium term. | No. | |
| Article 25(6) – EMIR | Provision provides for access to EU markets if the Third Country CCP satisfies a number of requirements, including a positive equivalence determination by the Commission vis-à-vis the regulatory and prudential framework. A Third Country CCP whose jurisdiction has been granted equivalence in this way will obtain access across the EU by virtue of it subsequently being "recognised" under Article 25(2) of | Yes | Yes, temporarily. EU temporary equivalence and recognition of UK CCPs until 30 June 2022 pursuant to this decision | The Central Counterparties (Equivalence) Regulations 2020 will grant equivalence to CCPs established in EEA States. Therefore, subject to entry into an appropriate cooperation arrangement between the Bank of England and the relevant national competen authority in that EEA state, and a CCP-specific recognition determination by the Bank of England, after the end of the transition period UK firms will be able to continue using EEA CCPs. This equivalence decision does not exclude EEA CCPs from the Temporary Recognition Regime (TRR). Until recognition decisions are made, EEA CCPs who meet the relevant eligibility criteria will remain in the TRR, which is due to last until December 2023 and may be extended by HMT. | |
| | EMIR by ESMA. (It will also attain the status of "qualifying central counterparty" for the purposes of favourable treatment of its clearing participants' own funds requirements for CCP exposures under the CRR.) | | | In the UK, HM Treasury and the Bank of England have also put in place a temporary recognition regime for non-UK/EU CCPs under the Central Counterparties (Amendment etc., and Transitional Provision (EU Exit) Regulations 2018 (subject to prior notification requirement). | |
| Article 2a – EMIR | OTC derivatives definition/ equivalence of third country markets to regulated markets. | Yes | No. The European Commission has indicated that corresponding EU equivalence assessment of UK is ongoing. | The European Market Infrastructure Regulation (Article 2A) Equivalence Directions 2020 will grant equivalence to the EEA States for the purposes of Article 2A of EMIR. This will enable UK firms to continue to treat derivatives traded on EEA regulated | |

| Article 75(1) – EMIR | EMIR provides that a third country repository can provide services in the EU if it is recognised by ESMA. To be recognised, a third country trade repository needs to apply for recognition and must show that it is authorised and subject to effective supervision in a third country which has: | Yes | No. The European Commission has indicated that corresponding EU equivalence assessment of UK is ongoing (but recognition requires an international agreement). | No. |
| | (i) been recognised by the Commission as having an equivalent and enforceable regulatory and supervisory framework; | | | |
| | (ii) entered into an international agreement with the EU regarding mutual access to, and exchange of information on, derivative contracts; and | | | |
| | (iii) entered into cooperation arrangements to ensure that EU authorities, including ESMA, have immediate and continuous access to all necessary information. | | | |
| Article 19(1) – SFTR | Third Country trade repository recognition regime. The SFTR provides that third country repositories will only be able to provide services to EU firms for the disclosure of transactions where the third country repository has been recognised by ESMA. In order to be recognised by ESMA, certain conditions have to be satisfied including an equivalence | No | No. The Commission has indicated that corresponding EU equivalence assessment is ongoing. | No. |

| Article 25(9) – CSDR | Third country regime for CSDs – in order to be able to provide CSD services to EU issuers and market participants, Third Country CSD | No | Yes, temporarily. EU temporary equivalence and recognition of UK CSDs until 30 June 2021 pursuant to this decision | The Central Securities Depositories (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018 facilitate EU authorised CSDs registering in the UK, but the temporary regime is linked to making an equivalence determination under Article 25 UK CSDR – see below. |
| | must apply to ESMA for recognition which is subject to conditions: the third country must have an equivalent regulatory system; the third country firm must be subject to effective authorisation, supervision and oversight by home state; there must be a cooperation arrangement in place; and | | | The Central Securities Depositories Regulation Equivalence Directions 2020 will determine that CSDs in each EEA State are equivalent to Article 25 of UK CSDR. With equivalence granted, the BoE can then assess CSDs in the EEA for recognition (subject to establishing co-operation arrangements with the relevant EU authorities), allowing those CSDs, once recognised, to continue to service UK securities and to exit the transitional regime contained in onshored Article 69 CSDR and Part 5 of The Central Securities Depositories (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018. |
| | the CSD must allow users to comply with applicable national law. | | | On 1 December 2020, the BoE published a letter sent to EEA CSDs notifying them of the actions they need to take. Among other things, the letter refers to guidance that sets out the manner in which recognition applications may be made and the information that must accompany them. |
| Article 5(6) – CRA Regulation | Third country regime for credit rating agencies. EU financial services providers cannot use credit ratings originating from a third country CRA unless one of two situations applies: Endorsement : EU registered CRAs may endorse a credit rating issued | Yes | No. The European Commission has indicated that corresponding EU equivalence assessment of UK is ongoing. | The Credit Rating Agencies Regulation Equivalence Directions 2020 will determine that, for the purposes of Article 5 of the CRA Regulation, the legal and supervisory framework of each EEA state ensures that credit rating agencies authorised or registered in that EEA state comply with legally binding requirements which are equivalent to the requirements resulting from CRA Regulation and are subject to effective supervision and enforcement. |
| | by a third country CRA. The EU CRA will be responsible for the production of the credit ratings. The EU CRA may only endorse the credit rating from the third country CRA if certain conditions are fulfilled; or | | | EEA credit rating agencies registered with ESMA and whose credit rating activities are not of systemic importance to the financial stability or integrity of UK financial markets may apply for certification with the FCA. Firms using ratings for regulatory purposes will be able to use credit ratings issued by an EEA CRA that is certified with the FCA and has no presence or affiliation in the UK. |

| | Certification : Credit ratings that are related to entities established or financial instruments issued in third countries and that are issued by a CRA established in a third country may be used in the EU without being "endorsed" by an EU CRA where certain conditions are satisfied. Instead, the third country CRA has to directly apply to ESMA for certification that it meets the conditions. | | | Firms can already make use of the separate transitional regimes provided by UK CRAR, notably the temporary registration regime available to EEA CRAs wishing to issue ratings in the UK after the end of the transition period: The Credit Rating Agencies (Amendment etc.) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 | | | |
| Article 30(2) – BMR | Benchmark Regulation third country equivalence regime (general). Once conditions are satisfied and benchmark administrators registered with ESMA, EU financial institutions will be able to use the benchmarks provided by those registered. | No | No. The European Commission has indicated that corresponding EU equivalence assessment of UK is ongoing. | The Benchmarks Regulation Equivalence Directions 2020 will determine that benchmark administrators in each EEA State comply with legal requirements which are equivalent to the Benchmarks Regulation and are appropriately supervised in the relevant EEA Member State. This equivalence decision acts as a mechanism to enable such administrators to be added to the FCA's benchmarks register, and to enable them to provide benchmarks to supervised entities in the UK. The UK Government intends to extend the transitional period for all overseas benchmarks from end-2022 to end-2025 in the Financial Services Bill which has recently been introduced in Parliament. During the transitional period for third country benchmarks, UK supervised entities are permitted to use all third country benchmarks. | | | |
| Article 30(3) – BMR | Benchmark Regulation third country equivalence (for specific administrators or specific benchmarks / families of benchmarks. | Yes | No. The European Commission has indicated that corresponding EU equivalence assessment of UK is ongoing. | See above. | | | |

This modification of the application of the UK DTO applies to UK firms, EU firms using the UK's TPR and branches of overseas firms in the UK. Transactions concluded by an EEA UCITS fund or an EEA AIF are currently outside the scope of the UK DTO. This relief under the TTP does not apply to trades with non-EU clients, proprietary trading conducted, for example, to hedge a firm's own risk exposure, and trades between UK branches of EU firms. These trades remain subject to the UK DTO." |
| Article 25(4)(a) – MiFID | MiFIR trading venue equivalence for share trading obligation (STO) | Yes. | No. On 26 October 2020 and in the absence of an equivalence decision by the European Commission, ESMA released a public statement that clarifies the application of the STO post end of transition. | On 4 November 2020, the FCA confirmed that it will use the TTP to allow firms to continue trading all shares on EU trading venues and systematic internalisers, providing the venue has ensured it has the relevant regulatory permissions. The standstill direction can be accessed here. |

| | third-countries can be exempted from the scope of the regulation (in the same way as transactions with the European System of Central Banks) | | respect to EU MiFIR under Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2019/462 | |
| Article 13(2)– EMIR | EMIR substituted compliance mechanism re clearing, reporting and risk mitigation requirements | Yes | Yes, temporarily. Immediate impact on clearing requirements mitigated by EU temporary equivalence and recognition of UK CCPs until 30 June 2022 pursuant to this decision. | The European Market Infrastructure Regulation (Article 13) Equivalence Directions 2020 will grant equivalence to the EEA States for the intragroup exemption in Article 13 EMIR. HMT are granting a partial Article 13 decision in relation to the intragroup exemption in regard to activities subject to the clearing obligation (Article 4) and OTC derivative margin requirements (Article 11). This decision paves the way for UK firms to seek or apply an exemption from the requirement to clear through a CCP or meet margin requirements for transactions with an EEA State entity in the same group. Granting this decision means these exposures can qualify as intragroup exposures in the CVA calculation, ensuring that UK firms will in many cases not have to capitalise CVA on OTC exposures to EEA State affiliates. |
| Article 76a(2)– EMIR | Mutual direct access to data – enables regulators in a third country (in which one or more trade repositories are established), to have direct access to information in EEA trade repositories. | No | No. The European Commission has indicated that corresponding EU equivalence assessment of UK is ongoing. | No. |
| Article 1(6)– EMIR | Transactions with central banks from third-countries can be exempted from the scope of the regulation (in the same way as transactions with the European System of Central Banks) | No | Yes. The European Commission has granted a corresponding exemption with respect to EU EMIR under Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2019/460 | The OTC Derivatives, Central Counterparties and Trade Repositories Exemption Directions 2019 |
| Article 2(2)– SFTR | Exemption from Article 4 reporting and safeguarding obligation, and Article 15 transparency requirements on reuse of financial instruments received under a collateral arrangement. | No | Yes. The European Commission has granted a corresponding exemption with respect to EU SFTR under Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2019/463 | The Transparency of Securities Financing Transactions and of Reuse Exemption Directions 2019 provides exemption from Articles 4 and 15 for (a) the European Central Bank; (b) the central bank of a member State; (c) a body in a member State which performs similar functions to members of the European System of Central Banks; or (d) a body in a member State |

| Article 17(2)– SSR | Market making exemption (and applicability to firms that are members of a trading venue/market in an 'equivalent' third country) | No | No. The European Commission has indicated that it will not make a corresponding equivalence assessment in respect of the UK in the short to medium term. | The Short Selling Regulation Equivalence Directions 2020 will determine that EEA States markets are equivalent for the purposes of Article 17 SSR. This means that EEA market makers will be eligible to make use of the exemption in Article 17 of SSR (which disapplies certain short selling restrictions and reporting requirements) subject to complying with certain regulatory requirements. |
| Article 16 – SSR | Exemption from the requirements below for shares of a company admitted to trading where the principle venue is located in a third country: Article 5 – Notification to competent authorities of significant net short positions in shares | No | No. The European Commission has indicated that corresponding EU equivalence assessment of UK is ongoing. | The most recent version of the ESMA list of shares for which the principal trading venue is located in a third country will be recognised in the UK for two years from 31 December 2020. |

NCAs may require the establishment of a holding company with a head office within the EU. | Decision for NCAs to take | Decision for NCAs to take | Yes. The UK regulators have confirmed that consolidated requirements for EEA headquartered groups can continue to meet consolidated capital and liquidity requirements at EEA top parent company level. |
| Article 107(3) - CRR | Article 107 of the CRR provides that exposures to third country investment firms, credit institutions or clearing houses and exchanges shall be treated as exposures to an EU credit institution/investment firm only if the third country applies prudential and supervisory requirements to that entity that are at least equivalent to those applied in the EU. If the third country is not regarded as equivalent, the exposure to the third country firm would be regarded as that for a corporate entity and would have a higher risk weighting. | Yes | No. The European Commission has indicated that corresponding EU equivalence assessment of UK is ongoing. | The Capital Requirements Regulation Equivalence Directions 2020 will grant equivalence to the EEA for Article 107 (3) of the CRR. For UK firms, these equivalence decisions will ensure they will not be subject to increased capital requirements as a result of their EEA State exposures |
