Telecommunications, Media and Technology

How we can help

Transformative advice for a fast moving sector

Synonymous with high-quality and innovative legal advice

Allen & Overy has led the market throughout its 86-year history, whether working on the first ever Eurobond issue in 1963, acting for the world's first carbon neutral city (Masdar City in Abu Dhabi) in 2010 or being at the forefront of transactions in emerging areas such as blockchain (advising Deutsche Börse Group on its investment in Digital Asset Holdings). In 2017 we continue to bring new and original ways of thinking to the most complex legal challenges our clients face.

A track record of assisting leading TMT companies

Using our powerful global network of leading lawyers in 44 offices and 31 countries, we work on many of the largest and most high-profile TMT transactions and cases. Our TMT clients trust us to assist them with their business critical matters, and we enjoy helping them succeed.

A dedicated TMT focus to deliver valuable and relevant legal assistance

We have a dedicated Telecommunications, Media and Technology sector group. Supporting these industries is a key priority for Allen & Overy and this group allows us to foster and share industry knowledge and expertise across our offices and legal disciplines. As many of our TMT clients operate across borders, we support them by being able to combine our talents and resources to provide solutions in almost any country, at any time.

The resource and flexibility to meet your varied needs

Few firms can deliver the combination of experience and resource that is needed to handle the most important matters. Our team benefits from experience acquired not only in private practice but also in-house at leading TMT companies and on secondments to corporates and regulatory bodies. This means we provide relevant industry-focused advice, delivered quickly to ensure that we add value from day one. So, irrespective of the location, the size, or the complexity of the matter, you can be confident that we have the right team in the right place.

“Clients appreciate the firm’s high level of service, noting that ‘you have absolute confidence in getting high-quality work’, adding that the advice is ‘delivered to you when you need it’.”
